placements, is the top portion of that. Are you...

SENATOR LANDIS: This is...this is for Fiscal Year 2001. When does the transfer of responsibility occur?

SENATOR THOMPSON: July 1, 2001.

SENATOR LANDIS: And these are...this is not an A bill, so this money is where now?

SENATOR THOMPSON: Well, this money will be in the second year out. This year there would be no...none of it impacts this year's budget.

SENATOR LANDIS: This money is where now if it's...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Oh, right now, these...well, actually, I can't do this short. Do you want me to wait for my time?

SENATOR LANDIS: Well, here's a question to answer.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Okay.

SENATOR LANDIS: If there are state responsibilities and there isn't new money to take them on, where is the money coming to essentially handle state responsi...new...

SENATOR THOMPSON: New.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...state responsibilities?

SENATOR THOMPSON: New General Fund money.

SENATOR LANDIS: And that would occur when?

SENATOR THOMPSON: July...the next...the next biennium budget.

SENATOR LANDIS: How could we do that with no A bill on the...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Well, we do...I kind of goofed up in my description of it, so there's no...what I meant to say is there's no budget bill. It doesn't impact the budget this year,
